PART 4 — READING CHALLENGE

The Best Vacation Ever

Last summer, my family visited three beautiful places in Colombia: Medellín, Cartagena and Salento.

Medellín was cleaner than my hometown, and the weather was cooler. Cartagena was hotter than Medellín, but the beaches were more beautiful. Salento was the quietest place. The mountains were greener, the air was fresher and the people were the friendliest. My sister thought Cartagena was the most exciting city because she loved the sea. My father preferred Salento because it was the most peaceful place. I liked Medellín the best because it had interesting museums, delicious food and beautiful parks. Every city was different, but each one taught us something new about our country.

Activity A. Choose the correct answer

1. How many places did the family visit?
a) One b) Two c) Three d) Four
2. Cartagena was...
a) colder than Medellín. b) hotter than Medellín. c) smaller than Medellín. d) quieter than Medellín.
3. Salento was...

- a) the noisiest place. b) the quietest place. c) the hottest place. d) the oldest place.
4. Who preferred Salento?
a) Mother b) Father c) Sister d) Grandmother
5. Why did the writer like Medellín?
a) Because it has snow. b) Because it has museums, parks and delicious food. c) Because it has beaches. d) Because it is the hottest city.

Activity B. Vocabulary. Match

English		Español
Peaceful	_____	tranquilo
Friendly	_____	amigable
Exciting	_____	emocionante
Cool	_____	fresco
Beach	_____	playa

Activity C. Think and answer

1. Which Colombian city would you like to visit? _____
2. Why? _____
3. Describe your town using three adjectives: _____

PART 5 — MY DREAM SCHOOL

Imagine you can design the perfect school.

Draw your school

Write about your school

Name: _____

It is _____

There are _____

The classrooms are _____

The teachers are _____

The library is _____

The playground is _____
