PART 3 — GRAMMAR IN CONTEXT

Learning Beyond the Classroom

Many students believe that learning only happens inside the classroom. However, people also learn from their families, friends, books and daily experiences.

A student who reads every day usually develops better vocabulary and stronger reading comprehension skills. In addition, participating in community projects helps students become responsible citizens.

Although technology offers many educational opportunities, it can also become a distraction if students do not use it responsibly.

Successful learners organize their time, ask questions and practice regularly because learning is a continuous process.

PART 4 — READING CHALLENGE

Digital Learning: Advantages and Challenges

Technology has changed the way students learn. Nowadays, many schools use digital platforms to share homework, videos and interactive activities. These tools allow students to study at their own pace and review lessons whenever they need.

However, technology also presents challenges. Some students become distracted by social media or spend too much time playing online games instead of studying. Others may not have reliable internet access at home, making it difficult to complete assignments.

Teachers encourage students to use technology responsibly by selecting trustworthy sources, organizing their study time and participating actively in virtual learning environments.

Although digital learning cannot replace human interaction completely, it has become an important educational resource for millions of students around the world.

PART 5 — READING CHALLENGE II (PRE-SABER READING)

Success Is More Than Good Grades

Many people believe that success depends only on getting excellent grades at school. Although academic achievement is important, it is not the only factor that determines a person's future.

Successful people usually develop skills such as responsibility, perseverance, communication and teamwork. They understand that mistakes are opportunities to learn instead of reasons to give up.

For example, many entrepreneurs failed several times before creating successful companies. Likewise, athletes and artists spend years practicing before achieving their goals.

Schools play an important role by helping students develop critical thinking, creativity and problem-solving abilities. These competencies are essential in today's world because technology, science and society continue changing rapidly.

Therefore, preparing for an exam is important, but developing lifelong learning habits is even more valuable.

Activity A. Choose the correct answer

- 1. What is the main idea of the text?
a) Grades are the only key to success. b) Success depends on different skills, not only grades. c) Technology guarantees success. d) Creativity is not important.
- 2. According to the text, mistakes are...
a) signs of failure. b) opportunities to learn. c) reasons to quit. d) impossible to avoid.
- 3. The word Likewise can best be replaced by
a) However b) Similarly c) Finally d) Instead
- 4. Which ability is NOT mentioned?
a) Teamwork b) Creativity c) Programming d) Critical thinking
- 5. Schools should help students develop...
a) only academic knowledge. b) life skills and critical thinking. c) fewer responsibilities. d) only technological skills.
- 6. The author's purpose is to...
a) entertain readers. b) explain that success is broader than good grades. c) advertise a school. d) criticize education.

Activity B. Vocabulary in Context

Complete the meanings.

Word	Meaning
perseverance
teamwork lifelong critical thinking achieve

Activity C. Answer in complete English sentences

1. Why are mistakes important? _____
2. Which personal skill do you want to improve? _____
3. How can your school help students become successful? _____

“Success is not about knowing all the answers; it is about never stopping your desire to learn.”

Remember: every page you read, every new word you learn, and every mistake you correct brings you one step closer to achieving your goals.

Believe in yourself and keep learning every day!
