- a. Good at history? Maybe Law is the subject for you
- b. Anyone can study Law
- c. Choose a subject you think you'll be good at.

 Nicky is studying Law at University. 'I chose to study Law because I want to be a detective or a lawyer', she says. 'When I was young I always enjoyed watching detective programmes on TV. I imagined solving the crimes myself and helping the victims. I also loved watching films with court room scenes.' Many children drop out of school where Nicky lives, so graduating from High School was a proud moment for her. She says her mum always motivated her to work hard at school. 'When I was at school I was good at History. It was my favourite subject.' If you're good at History, you'll find studying Law similar in many ways. I'd also say Maths has helped me a lot. I think about Law questions a bit like I do Maths questions, identifying the problem, applying the formula and finding the answer. Everyone knows Law degrees involve a lot of reading. It's true, Law students are always the last ones to leave the library! You also need to have a good memory and a good analytical brain. It's lots of hard work and many hours studying, but we still find time to have fun. I hope to work for a Criminal Law company when I leave university. One day, I plan to have my own company!

6. Read the text again and answer the questions.

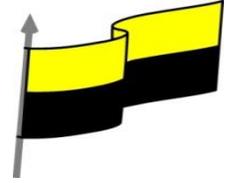

- a. What does Nicky want to do when she's older?

- d. What subject does she says is helpful for Law?
- e. Why do Law students spend a lot of time in the library?
- f. What two skills does she say you need to study Law?
