elige la oración correctamente escrita, según el texto.

Teenagers get a hard time about their fashion choices. The Disney actress Bella Thorne was criticised by the media a few months ago for wearing a wacky minidress, but a little later she won fashion plaudits for attending an awards ceremony in a floor-length gown. Let's get real: which outfit do you think she wanted to head out in? I doubt it was the billowing silk tent, but I guess she decided to conform to the adult world's idea of age-appropriate clothing. What to wear – or what not to wear – as a teenager is a hot topic for adults and a no-win situation for teenagers.

- ☐ she decided to fit requirement to the adult world's idea
- ☐ she decided to leave to the adult world's idea
- ☐ he decided to applaud to the adult world's idea

It's hardly surprising we want to stay in bed all day, because the moment we get dressed in anything other than a sack we get scrutinized and judged. Adults don't want their children to grow up. I'm 14 and want to wear decent clothes when I go out. I like wearing long necklaces, detailed collars, lots of rings, check shirts, high-waisted shorts, blazers, skinny jeans, knee-high socks, dresses with elasticized waistlines, wacky tights, Converse and vintage shoes.

- ☐ adults don't want their children to grow up.
- ☐ they want to wear decent clothes
- ☐ they are judged and stare for others.
